Bio

Natalie Hutley-Hurst

- Natalie has recently been appointed as a legal director for Parish Group. Her extensive qualifications and experience stretch over 15 years working in legal, compliance and corporate. She qualified as a lawyer in England & Wales in 2001 and worked with a major international law firm in both London and Singapore. After time working in New York, she then established and ran her own successful business in London before becoming director of legal and compliance at an international trading firm in London. Her career to date has given her hands on experience which means she is exceptionally well placed to understand client and business needs. She has headed up the in-house legal department for Parish Group since April 2016 and has advised numerous clients on various legal and HR matters including drafting and reviewing employee handbooks, employment contracts, share purchase agreements and lease renewals and reviews. As a member the Chartered Institute of Securities & Investment (MCISI) and the Law Society since 1999 she brings a wealth of experience to the board here at Parish Group.
